

2021/2022 Past President Challenge - What's In My Name?

For May 11, 2022

(Updated March 27, 2022)

The Challenge:

- Use your 3 initials to suggest colours, blocks and/or images to create a small quilted item.
- If you don't have a middle name, use one of your other initials twice
- You must include 3 prompts - ie 1 colour, 1 block name, and 1 image; or 2 colours and one block name, or 2 images and one colour...on the front of your project (backing or lining do not count)
- Your entry must be the equivalent of a finished, completed item - a top layer, a batting/lining, and a backing; quilted or tied; finished as appropriate. Appliqué is acceptable and will count as an image.
- Up to a total size of 84", adding up all sides.
- Consider making something that you might like to donate to Community Outreach or fund raising....lots of possibilities - zip bags or totes, Ipad/Kobo cases, table topper, placemat, wall hanging, etc).
- Hopefully we'll be viewing these in person, but if still virtual, the small projects will be easy to photograph

For Example, if your name is Cindy Lou Who, Quilter

- Cat's Cradle blocks (block), Lavender (colour) and White (colour), made into a placemat

2021/2022 Past President Challenge - What's In My Name? For May 11, 2022 (Updated March 27, 2022)

- Printed Cat fabric (image) on a Lime background (colour) made into Windmill blocks (block), joined together for a placemat
- Celery green background (colour) combined with printed Ladybug fabric (image), made using the Whirlygig block pattern - could be a doll quilt or a tote bag
- A Churn Dash (block) could be made with fruit printed fabrics - Lemons (colour or images) and Limes (colour or images) and Watermelons (images) - and finished as table topper
- Where to get ideas? Colour names from fabric lines, paint chips, kid's crayons. Get block names from the internet, quilt books, magazines

Examples are on following pages.

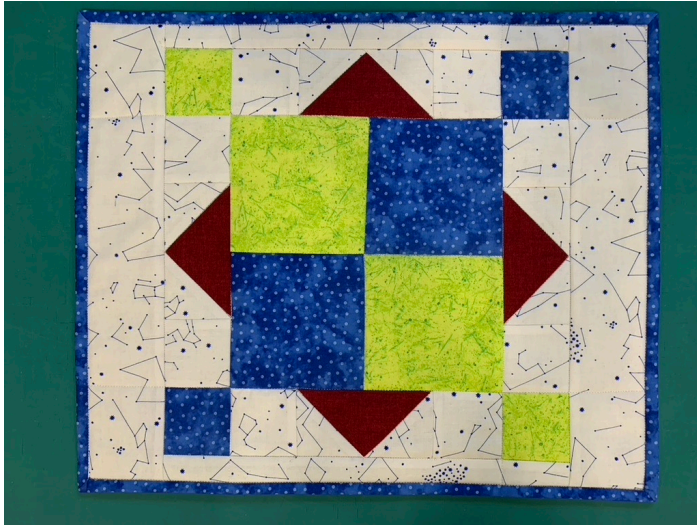

Your Entry is due by May 3

- Send a photo by email to pnqgpictures@gmail.com with "PPC ENTRY" in the subject Line
- Include a very brief description of the item, as well as your three initials and the prompts,
- For example, if I was submitting the doll quilt shown as a sample on the following page, my email message would say:
